HOLINESS.

Tunes—Gilechester, 75; Reuben, 74; Large Song-Book, No. 763.

1 Jesus, we look to Thee,
Thy promised presence
Thou in the midst of us shalt be,
Assembled in Thy name.

Thy name Salvation is,
Which here we come to prove;
Thy name is life, and health, and peace,
And everlasting love.

Present we know Thou art,
But, oh, Thyself reveal!
Now, Lord, let every waiting heart
Thy mighty comfort feel!

2 We're a band that shall conquer the foe,
If we fight in the strength of the King;
With the sword of the Spirit, we know,
We sinners to Jesus shall bring.

Chorus:
I believe we shall win,
If we fight in the strength of the King.

Our foe may be mighty and brave,
And the fighting be hard and severe;
But the King is the Mighty to Save,
And in conflict He always is near.

Ever true to God and The Army,
We will fight in the name of the King;
We shall win with the Fire and the Blood,
And the world to His feet we shall bring.

THE LATEST PHASE OF SALVATION ARMY EFFORT - CHILD EMIGRATION.

The Heretofore Home by Toronto

Who are those children that The Army is thus seeking to benefit? It is stated that there are 350,000 unwanted children in Great Britain—that is, children who, by reason of being neglected, inefficient guardianship and the like, have been thrown upon the mercy of the State, or upon public or private charity.

It is, however, not the institutions of the State that the Army is seeking to handle, but the children, who, unless speedily removed to happier surroundings, are likely to become such—the orphan, the deserted child, the child with no home, the child more or less a burden upon relatives, or who will afford to support it. With so wide a choice of homes, offering and support all the stronger. He made it plain that they did not, for a moment contemplate the possibility of the children's parents except in a few absolutely necessary instances; for the parent, however poor, if respectable, was far better than any institution. He was especially referred to any institution, however poor, of the Army's object is to save natural ties—in fact, it was already bestowing help upon the children with children, and placing them in countries where the children, instead of being a burden, would find a count as an asset. But there were too many roads and thousands of children who had been separated from mothers in the worst sense of the term; in other words, children who were unwanted.

The problem of "What shall we do with them?"

The Greeks had two words which we translate "perfect." One meant to be full, complete, or the other meant to complete or finish. The former applies to a person or thing which is quite fitted and thoroughly furnished for its purpose: "Made perfect in every good work" to "do His will." The second is used to express perfection in the sense of completeness, which results from growth and experience. BRANTFORD BAND VISITS THE GERMAN CITY

 Meetings—Great Crowds
 Hear the Band.
 The visit of the Brantford Band to Berlin was a long-looked for event. On Saturday, May 24, several hundred people turned out and gave the Bandmen a royal welcome. The musical festival on Saturday night was presided over by His Worship the Mayor, who, by the way, told the Band that if they had any health been good he would have given us a cornet solo himself.
 He spoke highly of The Army work.

On Sunday afternoon there was a large crowd in the Hall. This meeting was presided over by G. E. Baskin, who was supported by Ad. Mills. The chairman of his address said he felt honored to be able to take the chair, and he wished to thank the members of the Brantford Band. A night Brigadier and Mrs. Ad. conducted a salvation meeting, and raised for the B. G. B. $100. At 8:30 p.m. the Band, followed by hundreds of people, marched to the square, where an immense crowd had assembled. The Band gave a final festival, finishing by the song "The Lord is my King." The Band received $400 was raised during the week-end. Certainly the Band has made a good job!

The Berlin Band met the visitors at the station on Saturday and the two bands took supper together. During the meeting the Bronfson Band played such pieces as "Songs of Holland," "Following the Lord," "Rock II," "Bible Pictures II," also the "Crowns of Victory," and "Cittadel" marches, showing that in any way are the Bandmen of the Telephone City behind the times.

WAR CRY

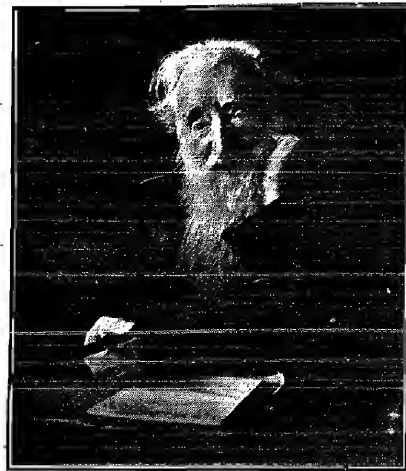

PRINTED for the Salvation Army in Canada, Toronto, 45, North Adelaide St., by the Salvation Army Press.

THE COMMISSIONER.

As will be noticed elsewhere, the Commissioner has gone to England for a conference on Canadian affairs with the General and the Chief of the Staff. The Commissioner has several plans on hand for the advancement of the war which he desires to personally place before The General and the Foreign Office. Let us all pray that journeying mercies may be extended to the Commissioner, and a safe return to us. We also ask our readers to remember dear Mrs. Rees in their prayers. Her health is not at all what we desire, but with blessed unselfishness she is ever ready to relinquish her husband at the call of duty, and as will be seen by our columns, the call comes very frequently.

DENOUNCING TOBACCO.

We see that the Methodist Conference is to be asked the question, "Should Methodist farmers grow tobacco?" We understand that the practice of growing the "noxious weed" is spreading rapidly in some parts of Canada, and that the resolution will record uncompromising opposition to tobacco growing. We hope that the Conference will pronounce against the cultivation of a plant which is the cause of a vast waste of money. Of course it is no more unchristian to grow tobacco than it is to smoke it, and we hope that not only Methodists but certain "salvationists" will take this matter as a column denunciation of the habit of smoking, and cease to do it. Tobacco has not many devotees in The Salvation Army. Tobacco and Army uniform never did look well together, but still we understand there are some, and we hope that a word to the wise will be sufficient. The use of tobacco is held in very undesirable it is injurious to health, and causes money to be wasted that could be put to much more useful purposes.

THE GENERAL,
GOD BLESS HIM!

The Commissioner has received a cable from Mr. Bramwell Booth, the Chief of the Staff, in the effect that the operation on the General's eye for the removal of a cataract has been successful, and that he is afraid efforts to restore the General's sight will result in failure. He adds the cheering news that The General is keeping very well.

THE ASSISTANT CHIEF SECRETARY

With Mrs. Gaskin, Conducts Great Day at Winnipeg 1.—23 Children and 13 Adults at the Merry-Seat.

(By Wire).

Colonel and Mrs. Gaskin, assisted by the Divisional and Western Headquarters staff, conducted enthusiastic meetings at Winnipeg 1. on Sunday. The Colonel's addresses were powerful and to the point. Officers and Soldiers were wonderfully helped. The Colonel addressed the young people on Sunday afternoon, with a result that 20 children made a definite decision for Christ. Crowds were excellent all day. A special meeting was held for the Band, Senior and Junior Bandmen, as well as the Songsters, rendered valiant service during the day, which resulted in 13 adult smokers—Major McLean.

SOMETHING FOR F. O.'s.

In order that in future the walls of our Halls and Glades throughout the Dominion may not be damaged and disfigured by posters and notices plastered and nailed thereon in a haphazard manner, the Property Department at T. H. O. have just got out a number of sketch plans for neat and spacious notice boards. These plans will be sent to every Divisional Commander who will do his best to influence every F. O. in his Division to carry out the idea.

MRS. COMMISSIONER REES

Presides Over Dovercourt's Songster Festival at Parliament St.

On Wednesday night Parliament Street Corps received a visit from the Dovercourt Songster Brigade. Mrs. Commissioner Rees presided over the gathering, and in her remarks stated that she was pleased to be present for a twofold reason: one being that her daughter, Captain R. Rees, was the commanding officer of the Corps; and two, because two of her children were members of the Brigade. Following Mrs. Rees' remarks, the Brigade opened the programme with a spirited rendition of a vocal march, "Hail to Our High Your Voices." Other songs by the Brigade were "My Shepherd," "Come Unto Me," and "Thou Will Keep Him in Perfect Peace." Songster-Leader Sparks and Deputy Leader Whitehouse each contributed a vocal solo with Brigade accompaniment, and Mrs. Lohi sweetly soloed "Lead Thou Me." Sister Mrs. Whitehouse and Brothers Watson and Knott recited. Captain Rees read a portion of Scripture and thanked the Brigade for their kindly assistance. The Corps was unanimous in its desire for a speedy return visit of both Mrs. Commissioner Rees and the Brigade, and a hearty invitation was extended by the Brigade to Mrs. Rees, to accompany them on future occasions. —T. A.

Captain Mary Lohi
SERIOUSLY ILL, WITH PNEUMONIA.

Pray for the Chief of the Staff and Mrs. Booth, the new City. We deeply regret to have to state that the Chief of the Staff and Mrs. Booth have been subjected to a great sorrow in the very serious illness of their daughter, Captain Mary Lohi, who has been ill since August. She was suddenly taken ill and news was conveyed to Mrs. Booth that her life was in a pair of. Mrs. Booth, together with her daughter Miriam immediately proceeded to Hastings and found that Captain Mary was in the grip of double pneumonia, and at the time of writing she was very low and in great danger.

Amidst the accumulation of sorrows that have been the experience of the Chief of the Staff and Mrs. Booth just recently, there is one cheering note in the improved condition of the health of their daughter Miriam. Some of our comrades will remember that just last Mrs. Booth made a long reference to the serious state of health of this daughter, but we are glad to say that she is now much improved—indeed she may be said to be in a state of good health. Her recent illness, together with the disappointment at the failure of the operation to restore to The General his sight, has caused a great sorrow and anxiety for the Chief and Mrs. Booth, and we earnestly ask the prayers of our readers to uphold and sustain the parents and to speedily restore the daughter to health.

With the Bandmen at Hamilton.

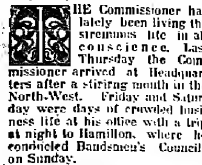

The Bandmen's Council at Hamilton was a season of great spiritual refreshment, in spite of torrid rain and a humidity that, figuratively speaking, nearly parboiled us.

The sessions were held in one of the small halls of the Y. M. C. A. building, and were attended by representative Bandmen from the Hamilton, Bramford, Niagara, and St. Catharines Corps. They numbered about one hundred and twenty, and if close attention, impulsively in prayer, when the applause and hearty singing were indications of enjoyment and appreciation, then these dear comrades enjoyed their comrades in full. Colonel and Mrs. Mapp, Colonel Pugmire, Brigadiers Bond and Potter, and other Headquarters comrades were present, as well as the D. C. A. Brigade and Mrs. Aldy, in a very spiritual way.

The great idea—the sacred thread throughout the Commissioner's addresses being a clear and inspiring exposition of the characteristics of God and a earnest call for all of us to strive to manifest the character of God in our lives. The several characteristics of God, Unchangeableness, Love, etc. were very clearly and succinctly placed before the comrades, and then further illuminated, enforced and made personal by a fine exercise of fictional story, example, and apt illustrations.

Illustration, until there was not one in that audience but saw and felt in a deep degree his privilege and duty in exemplifying Christ. For instance, when dealing with the characteristic of love, he declared that love should lead to service, and then proceeded to give an example, and told how that The Army had need of our officers to go to work in a leper hospital in the Indian East Indies. A volunteer was called for, and amongst those who volunteered in response to the call was a Cadet in the Clapton Training House, a beautiful girl who had been a hospital nurse in London. With a clear realization of all that it meant, she volunteered for the duty of going to work amongst the victims of what is perhaps the most heathen disease with which humanity is afflicted. She went on her service of mercy—the outward expression of love. In a graphic and tender manner the Commissioner dealt with the matter in detail, and as he talked the soft shadows of the gloaming filled the room, and through the subdued light one noticed the strong faces of the men fixed on the speaker and showing an intensity of feeling as they listened in a silence that was almost painful. But the Commissioner was not always grave, and sometimes his illustrations and remarks provoked hearty merriment. It was well; the tensely of feeling needed relaxation at times.

The Commissioner took supper with the Bandmasters, Deputies, and Songster Leaders, and gave them some very pointed counsel. The Chief Secretary also made an admirable impromptu speech in which he described a recent visit to the electric powerhouse at Niagara, and showed how the water before it could generate the electric fluid had to fall a hundred feet. Even so we must stoop to conquer, and be humble before we can be useful.

Amongst the other speakers were Brigadiers Aldy, Bond, and Potter. Colonel Pugmire, as usual sang with excellent effect. It was a splendid day, and the Bandmen—in an unmistakable manner—showed that they thought so, and eagerly sought a repetition of the privilege.

Mayer Chinkskil, The Commissioner's Host at Saskatoon.

Spiritual Day at the College. The Commissioner's Day with the Cadets for spiritual power and inspiration has rarely been equaled—never surpassed—during the last eighteen months that the Commissioner has been giving special attention to the Cadets. Faithfulness was the leading topic, and a very appropriate one, seeing that in a few days the Cadets will go out into the battle field, where they will find plenty to test their faithfulness to God and principle. The next little speech made by the Training Home Principal concerning their appreciation of the Commissioner's visit to the College, met with a response from the Cadets that will surely be a pleasant memory to him.

Amongst the Officers present at the meetings were Colonel and Mrs. Turner, Mrs. Brigadier Aldy, Major Simon, Staff-Captain Arnold, Colonel and Mrs. Mapp, and Colonel Pugmire, with the Editor, were present at the night meeting.

Non Voyage. A very agreeable little function took place on Wednesday last, when the Commissioner and Mrs. Rees, with Colonel and Mrs. Mapp, invited with the chief Officers of the Headquarters Staff—the object being to say bon voyage to the Commissioner, and to receive his benediction.

Amongst those present was our old friend, Brig. John McMillan, from Air-India. The proceedings were presided by the Chief Secretary, and easy gaiety, with a true Salvationist tone characterized the proceedings. Brigadier McMillan, in a happy little speech, "He was at home in Toronto—so he said, and his manner showed it. He treated us in some charming manner, and his words were full of the joy of his life in Toronto. Major Simco and Colonel Pugmire, on behalf of the Staff, bade the Commissioner God speed, and expressed their sympathy and affection for Mrs. Rees, after which the Chief Secretary in very graceful terms paid a tribute to the out-and-out Salvationist of the Commissioner, and bade him take our love to the General.

The Commissioner replied in a manner that showed considerable feeling, and then shook hands all round and bade us good-bye. He hopes to return to Canada about a month. God be with him all our most again.

The Western Tour. The Commissioner's week-end campaign at Moose Jaw was a splendid success, and this was due (Continued on Page 11.)

Salvation Songs.

HOLINESS.

Tune—Whiter Than Snow, 202; Song-Book, 380.

1 Tell me what to do to be pure,
In the sight of the all-seeing eyes!Tell me, is there no thorough cure
No escape from the sins I de-spise?
Tell me, can I never be free
From this terrible bondage within?Is there no deliverance for me, Must I always have sin dwell within?Will my Saviour only pass by—
Only show me how faulty I've been?Will He not attend to my cry?
Can I not at this moment be clean?Blessed Lord, almighty to heal,
I know that Thy power cannot fail.Here and now I know—yes, I feel,
The prayer of my heart does prevail.

PRAISE AND TESTIMONY.

Tune—"Come, Oh Come With Me"

2 Come, oh, come with me where Ive is booming;Come, oh, come with me where Light is streaming—Light and love divine, in Christ revealing,
God Himself to you and me.Come with all your sin, although a mountain;Come unto the Cross from whence a fountain Flows divinely clear, to heal the nation;Come and wash and make you clean.

SALVATION.

3 There is a better world, they say.Oh, so bright!
Where sin and woe are done
away.Oh, so bright!
And music fills the balmy air,
And angels with bright wings are there.And harps of gold and manna fair.Oh, so bright!
No clouds ever pass along that sky!
